Prayer Partners

This congregation continues to amaze and impress me with their care for one another. I can't tell you how many times I have prayed with one of you over the phone, say Amen, then you start praying as well. I'm always blown away by your willingness to pray!

Did you know that we have 6 members of our congregation who are praying for you? I know there are more than that, but 6 folks have volunteered to specifically pray for individuals that I have assigned to them each week beginning on Wednesdays. If you get a call asking how you are and how we can pray for you, that is who is calling! Rick, Steve, Cheryl, Sallie, Sylvia and Larry Dawson take time each week to lift individuals up in prayer.

How do I decide who needs prayer? Well, I pray about it and consult my prayer list from the previous worship service. If someone has been mentioned, I will probably assign someone as their prayer partner. Since this is a small group, not everyone who has been mentioned will receive a prayer partner every week.

Of course, these folks are not limited to praying just for their partner that week. But it helps to know who especially needs prayer right now. If you know of someone who needs prayer but was not mentioned in worship - or even if they were mentioned and you want to make sure they are covered in prayer - let me know.

Also let me know if you would like to be a part of this group - we always have more people who need a prayer partner. And you don't have to be available every week, either, just give me a heads up. We will be short one pray-er this week as they will be out of town and I will be out of town next week as well.

You may be wondering if a prayer partner has to call the person and pray with them over the phone. Maybe you are hesitant about doing that. Although I encourage our prayer partners to pray with them, I know that not everyone is comfortable with doing that. But it is good to at least reach out the individual, let them know they have a prayer partner and see what prayer needs they may have.

May your prayers for one another and others continue to enrich your faith.

Blessings,
Amelia
